The Motor City Chorus

THE MOTOR CITY CHORUS, under the direction of Ben Ayling, seven times champion chorus of the Pioneer District.

Tri County Connection

Pioneer District champion quartet of 1983, this foursome represented the district at St. Louis last June, placing as quarter-finalists. Although their average age is only 23, they've been singing together off and on since 1981. They're all members of the Wayne Chapter chorus, which took top honors at the Pioneer District competition in Battle Creek this fall. Brace yourselves, girls, they're all single, too, except Rick Sims. Members of the quartet, as pictured here from left to right, are: Mike Woodruff, baritone, a resident of Redford; Tom Conway, bass, also of Redford; Mike Dixon, lead, of Canton; and Rick Sims, tenor, of Southfield.

The Sound Syndicate

Just because this quartet's bass is also director of the Motor City Chorus, don't get the idea it was a "sweetheart deal" getting them on the program. They've earned their place in the spotlight by taking the 1979 quartet championship of the Johnny Appleseed District and rising to the semi-finals twice in international competition. Believe it or not, they first got together around a genuine lamp post at a district Barbershop school at Kenyon College. Left to right, they are: Jim Shisler, tenor, of Oakwood, Ohio, who also directs the Defiance, Ohio, Northwesterners barbershop chorus; Dave Wright, lead, of Toledo, who also directs a church choir, is a cantor, and is vocal music teacher at Anthony Wayne High School in Toledo; Ben Ayling, bass, of Toledo, vocal music teacher at Sylvania High School, director of a church choir, and ... tadummm ... director of the Motor City Chorus; Jim Covey, baritone, of Van Wert, Ohio, a former member of Dallas' Vocal Majority chorus and presently an advertising manager.

The Classic Connection

The "Classics" lived up to their name, entering the hallowed halls of INTERNATIONAL QUARTET CHAMPIONS on July 2, 1983, at the Pittsburgh convention, where, incidentally, the Motor City Chorus competed, representing the Pioneer District. Their first award was Central States District Champs in 1975, and then, when three of the four relocated to Denver, they took the 1977 Rocky Mountain District championship. A number of bronze and silver medals were won on the way to the gold. They are: Curt Hutchinson, tenor, of Englewood, CO, a commercial insurance underwriter; Larry Wilson, lead, of Englewood, a public relations and marketing director; Terry Heltne, bass, a pharmaceutical sales rep from Aurora, CO; and George Davidson, baritone, an energy and safety manager from Englewood.

It's fun, it's good therapy, and it's great camaraderie ... singing with the Motor City Chorus. And you're invited! Just stop by Westminster Presbyterian Church, 17567 Hubbell at Outer Drive, any Monday at 8:00 p.m. You don't have to have a trained voice, or even read music, just a love of singing and an appreciation for the great old songs that our dads and granddads loved.
