

2) Show progress report for Monday, 6/19/23 board meeting

Tasks completed;

Venue secured and agreement signed with Royal Oak First United Methodist Church for minimal costs
Performance Agreements signed with two guest quartets; The Newfangled Four and The Core.

Music Team is preparing chorus show repertoire

The two chapter quartets have identified one song each to perform

Jim Kunz has agreed to provide show script by mid-July

Jennifer Jones has agreed to act as stage manager

Ray and Judy Sturdy and Craig Roney have organized and signed agreement for staging the afterglow at Pronto next to the church

Tom Marciano is managing show program and publicity flyer printing as well as program ad sales

Tom Force has agreed to be show MC

Tasks yet to complete;

Notify Pioneer District of show date and guest quartets

Make hotel reservations for guest quartets; two double rooms for Newfangled Four for two nights and two double rooms for The Core for one night. I am currently monitoring the rates for the best deal.

Set up new or find existing GDC account with EventBrite for online ticket sales

Determine precise seating capacity at ROFUM for total ticket sales

Print tickets to be sold by GDC members and at door

Determine any ASCAP fees to be paid for show

Identify non-performing personnel needed for show production; runners, ushers ticket sales

Arrange show publicity in metro area; social media, e-blasts, posters, newspaper notices

Solicit volunteers to assist with uncompleted show production tasks

3) Membership report

James Brooker has applied online for BHS and GDC membership. Rick Buxton to follow. Thanks to Roger Boyer and John Marsh for recruiting Rick and James from Royal Oak First United Methodist Church choir. We should consider ways to recruit from other church choirs.

4) Development report

Plan to staff informational booth at Royal Oak Live on the 24th and 25th. Email soliciting volunteers sent out. Only 4 members have volunteered thus far.

Working on arrangements to keep riser chair at Royal Oak Middle School at least through the summer.

Now working with Middle School administration.

Thanks,

Geoff
